

Duangvipha (Dao) Makkitti

dm@resourcelinkthailand.com

Managing Director; Resource Link Consulting Group

Recruitment Specialist, Facilitator, Brand Communications & People Specialist

Duangvipha's 17 year-entire career has been people oriented/ intangible sales and services related. Starting as a recruitment consultant, then becoming a Leader/ Entrepreneur setting up companies, assisting and working with multinational clients/ projects in Thailand, South East Asian countries as well as Australia and Japan for their recruitments and people management consulting assignments. This combination has given her intensive experience in managing change processes both at the organizational and individual levels particularly in cross-cultural environments.

Duangvipha is currently a Managing Director/ Partner of Resource Link Consulting Group. She is also a certified International Facilitator trained in various Facilitation methods. She has lead numerous sessions in Sales Simulations and Customer Service, facilitated executive meetings/ brain storming sessions, and conducted one on one executive coaching.

Duangvipha's assignments are mainly in the international & multicultural environment in Asia, USA and Australia. Duangvipha also works as a freelancer on Branding, People and Communications for Mutual Agreement, and does projects as a Creative Copy Writer.

Markus Wehrhahn

Director; Resource Link Consulting Group
markusw@resourcelinkaustralia.com

Markus has recently joined Resource Link Consulting Group (Australia and Thailand) in the capacity of Director and Partner. Formerly with PwC Consulting Inc, Markus brings a broad HR consulting background to the team and is now focused on new Business & Account Development.

Markus has spent over 8 years working in Japan for a number of multinational organizations in various industries including electronics, manufacturing and professional services.

Markus has extensive experience in Learning & Development, Organizational Development and Leadership Development which he is able to leverage to understand clients needs. Markus has a natural flair for understanding client and candidate needs and coming up with the perfect solutions. He also speaks fluent Japanese and German.

Pitchanan Bunplook

Recruitment Manager; Resource Link Consulting Group
pb@resourcelinkthailand.com

Executive & Technical Recruitment Specialist, Recruitment Planning, Recruitment Project Management

A true professional with a strong recruitment consulting background, Pitchanan has been with Resource Link for over 7 years, managing key accounts like Unilever, Monsanto, Chubb and Stiebel Eltron Asia.

Pitchanan has extensive experience in client relationship management, recruitment team and operations management. This combination gives Pitchanan a natural ability to understand people and translate conflict into productivity and good communication. Pitchanan combines sophisticated human nature knowledge with highly interactive, intuitive personal style to strengthen teamwork and trust.